MIDDLEBURG.

J. M. Durham, like Job of old, is afflicted with boils.

W. T. Durham is working a large force of men getting out staves on Chelf's Ridge.

A fine rain fell here Sunday and the prospect for the most bountiful crop of corn ever raised in this section is fair. J. M. Durham & Son are preparing to build a 20-foot addition to their store. This will make theirs the largest business house in town.

The meeting at the Methodist church is progressing finely. Good crowds attend the night services, and the meeting will continue through this week at least.

John S. Coulter, Jr., the back driver, has bought a new wagon and is now prepared to accommodate the traveling public in fine style. We are glad John is enjoying a prosperous business.

Fred Durham was 16 years old Saturday and weighed 250 pounds, but that was five pounds lighter than he was some weeks ago. By the way. Fred is correspondent for the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, but that don't mean that he is a republican. Stanford, Ky.

When Rev. Simer went over to Rocky Ford on the 9th, inst., to fill his appointment the news of his escapade court. It is reported that they urged him to open his grip, when an ugly pistol was disclosed. He said though it was out of fix and a very harmless one. There is some sympathy expressed here for his wife and three small children, but none for the preacher, who, No. 1 does not stop. HUBBLE.

There is the finest prospect for corn crops that has been for years.

Mrs. Eliza Harris sold some corn to George Lawson for $2 at the crib.

George Wood sold to Jos. McCarley a lot of mountain lambs at about 4e. Elder George Gowen writes us from New York City that he will not be at his appointment here on 4th Sunday

JUNCTION CITY.

Junction City is doing more building this Summer than Stanford, for Mr. W. A. Reynolds is erecting a large 12room residence on Hill street, Dr. Steele, one on Shelby street and Mr. Shanks one near his store-room. The colored order of Samaritans are building themselves a two-story lodge room near their Baptist church and the colored Odd Fellows one by Mr. Moberly's shop. The Knights of Honor and the Ladies and Knights of the Maccabees are negotiating for the purchase of a lot and the erection of a two-story lodge room, by means of a joint stock company, to be used by each of the have that fiver I loaned you last night, lodges in turn.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each

American Wild Ducks. English Quail,

American Pheasant, English Snipe.

Plaque is bordered with a band of gold. ELASTIC STARCH has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is. ASK YOUR DEALER to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to re-ceivefrom their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch. Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal in the stock so that depositors of this institution are secured by a furd—1820,000. Five sworn statements of the condition of the Bank are made each year to the United States tovernment and its agents, this securing additional and perfect salet to depositors.

This institution originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then reorganized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1863 and again reorganized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1882, has bad practically an uninterrupted existence for 35 years. It is better supplied now witterally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of individuals, fiduciaries, firms and individuals solicied.
